

Visit Nantes with peace of mind:

Nantes' tourism professionals : working together to ensure your safety

1 When you arrive in Nantes

At the station and at the airport:

- Clear signage helps you to respect preventive measures
- Antibacterial gel dispensers are widely available
- Spaces are regularly cleaned

You and all other travellers will be wearing a face mask!

3 When you arrive at your hotel

- The reception desk is equipped with a plexiglass wall
- All rooms, common areas, surfaces and work equipment are cleaned according to a rigorous cleaning plan.
- Staff have been trained in new standards and procedures

2 When travelling around Nantes

By tram and bus:

- Frequent public announcements, visible floor-markings and clear signage on seats are all in place to help respect social distancing measures.
- Doors open automatically on all equipped vehicles
- Antibacterial gel dispensers are available on all tramways and busways

By taxi :

- A plexiglass wall separates the driver and the customer
- A list of preventive measures is displayed in the vehicle
- Antibacterial gel is at your disposal

You and all other travellers will be wearing a face mask!

4 When you arrive at your conference, trade fair, or event

The major event venues (La Cité Nantes Congress Centre, Exponantes, the Castle and the Machines ...) are organized to optimise social distancing and protective measures, with in particular:

- Controlled organization of the public circulation routes
- Frequent cleaning and ventilation of premises, surfaces and equipment
- A COVID reference contact for event organizers

Tourism stakeholders are committed to a common charter for hosting major events, and have been since 2013.

5 When going out for a drink and a bite to eat

- All staff are masked both throughout the establishment and in the kitchen
- Antibacterial gel is at your disposal
- Hospitality staff invite customers to respect protective measures. For movement inside establishments wearing a mask is compulsory for anyone 11 years of age and over.

6 Carefree travel around a city where you can breathe easy !

Nantes Tourisme can inform you about the sanitary conditions of accommodations, sites and cultural and tourist activities:

- By phone (from abroad) : + 33 (0)2 72 64 04 79 (0.35€/min + carrier charges) open 24/7
- Online : www.nantes-tourisme.com/en/it-sopen

By bike : Nantes offers over 355km of cycle paths and one hundred self-service bicycle stations, allowing you to discover the city in the fresh air

Breathe easy thanks to the 101 parks and gardens in the city

Follow the green line, an urban trail full of surprises leading to different cultural and tourist sites, in total safety : www.nantes-tourisme.com/en/le-voyage-nantes-trail